Hitchcocks
Close House
On Saturday

Will Take Apartments at Arlington Until Leaving City.

Former Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Ethan Allen Hitchcock will close their home tomorrow and take an apartment in the Arlington Hotel until their final departure for their former home, in St. Louis. Miss Hitchcock will then be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Sims, wife of Lieutenant Commander Sims, at her home in Eighteenth street, until the family assembles at the summer home of the family at Dublin, N. H.

Mrs. Hoes, wife of Chaplain R. R. Hoes, U. S. N., will go to Norfolk this evening to join Dr. Hoes, who is now stationed there. She will return here on Monday, after selecting a house there, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Otto H. Tittman entertained at a handsomely set table yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. S. Biddle, wife of the military attaché of the American embassy in Berlin, who has been in Washington for some time. Mrs. Guthrie and Mrs. Willard Warner presided at the tea table. The hostess and her guest of honor were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Biddle's sister-in-law, Miss Susan Biddle, and a party of other hostesses well known in social circles.

The spring sale for the benefit of deserving industrious women, known as "The Gentlewomen's Sale," will take place in the former home of Dr. Ritchey, 730 Seventeenth street, and will begin on Monday. The ladies having it in charge will serve one of their excellent luncheons each day during the week. Admission is free, and tea is served after 4 o'clock. The patronesses are: Mrs. Arthur D. Addison, Mrs. Murray Addison, Mrs. Biddle, Mrs. John C. Boyd, Mrs. Arthur T. Brice, Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. George T. Dunlop, Mrs. Elkins, Mrs. George F. Elliott, Mrs. Green Clay Goodloe, Mrs. Hay, Miss Heintzelman, Mrs. Robert H. Hickey, Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. Arthur Wendell Holmes, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, Miss Kean, Miss Kibbey, Mrs. Fleming Lavender, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. James Lowndes, Mrs. Nicholas Luquer, Mrs. McGowan, Mrs. Duncan McKim, Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver, Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, Mrs. Pinchot, Miss J. Riggs, Mrs. J. P. Sanger, Mrs. Cotton Smith, Mrs. John P. Story, Mrs. R. Rush Wallace, Mrs. Nathaniel Wilson, and Mrs. Yarrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. B. Barber entertained a large company last evening at a reception in celebration of the seventh anniversary of their marriage. The parlors were prettily decorated with spring flowers, tall palms and ferns, and in the dining room the table was ornamented with yellow topped silver candelabra. An orchestra played in the reception hall throughout the evening. Mrs. Barber, who was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Neale, wore a modish costume of black over silk and trimmed with pale blue chiffon velvet and lace. Mrs. Neale also wore black net with trimmings of jet sequins. Miss Ella Given, in a princess gown of white chiffon, Miss Watts in a princess gown of lace over pale pink tulle, and Miss Daisy Stewart in a blue and white pompadour gown assisted the hostess in doing the honors of the dining room.

Wadsworths
Entertain at Musical

Hundreds of Guests Hear
Cecil Fanning and Kitty Berger.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth entertained at their Thursday evening musical last evening at 10 o'clock, following a dinner party, when several hundred guests were entertained with a program of songs by Cecil Fanning, a young baritone who has made unprecedented successes this season, and some charming numbers on the harp-zither by Mme. Kitty Berger, who has played often this season at the White House, at Mrs. Leiter's, and at several other drawing-room affairs. Mr. Fanning's songs included an aria from Herodias and songs by Strauss and Rios, and some exquisite folk songs and ballads. He was skillfully accompanied by H. B. Turpin.

Justice Ashley M. Gould, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and his bride, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Morris Brewer, of this city, have returned to the former's home on Sixteenth street, after a brief wedding trip of a few days, which time they spent at Atlantic City. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's sister in East Orange, N. J.

Mrs. Basil Gordon, of Baltimore, who spent the winter in Washington, is making a short visit in the South. She will sail for Europe in May, with her sister, Miss Montague, of Baltimore, who spent the greater part of the winter here with her.

Mrs. Abbott and the Misses Abbott, wife and twin daughters of Captain Frederick V. Abbott, are making a visit in the Philippines and have spent the winter at the Fort. They will return later this spring to their home on Columbia road, which was leased when they went to Manila.

Mrs. John H. Nolan and Mrs. Edwin A. Martin were hostesses yesterday afternoon at a large tea in Mrs. Nolan's home, on Connecticut avenue. Palms and pink carnations formed the decorations in the parlors, and in the dining room pink-shaded candelabra and tulips adorned the table. Mrs. Maynard and Mrs. Dwyer presided at the tea table and Miss Belle Fisher was in charge of the punch bowl. Assisting the hostesses in the drawing room were Miss Mullaly and Miss Diloe. Mrs. Nolan wore a gown of flowered chiffon and pink satin velvet. Mrs. Martin wore pale pink voile and Irish lace. After the tea the receiving party and a few additional guests were entertained at supper.

Capt. and Mrs. William Mason Wright entertained at a bridge party yesterday afternoon in honor of their house guests, Messrs. Harry Behrend, of Huntington, W. Va. The color scheme was carried out tastefully in red. The guests were Mrs. Harry Behrend, Mrs. E. Charles Fisher, Mrs. Bernard Behrend, of Seat Pleasant, Md.; Mrs. Levi H. David, Mrs. Isaac Behnd, Mrs. Rudolph E. Behrend, and Miss Nellie Behrend.

Miss Strouse, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Oscar Baum, at the Falcon, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Miss Marguerite Goldman, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney C. Kaufman, of the Bedford, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

McKim Organ
Attraction for Society

Edgar Priest Will Play at Musical for Hospital Benefit.

The center of social interest this afternoon is the musical to be given in the music room of the new home of Dr. and Mrs. Duncan McKim, at the corner of Eighteenth and R streets, for the benefit of the House of Mercy. The great pipe organ in this room, which was built in at the cost of $10,000, will be played by Edgar Priest, organist and choir master of Christ Church, in Georgetown, and the program of songs will be sung by Cecil Fanning, a young baritone who was heard for the first time in Washington last evening at Mrs. Wadsworth's musicale, where his superb voice and his good style aroused much enthusiasm. He will be accompanied by H. B. Turpin.

Gen. and Mrs. John Watts Kearney have issued cards for a reception Wednesday, April 2, at their residence, 1222 Eighteenth street.

Col. and Mrs. Charles Sumner Brownwell will entertain a large company on the evening of Wednesday, March 20.

Mrs. Easton will entertain at luncheon on Sunday at Corcoran House.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the Lenten season was given last Saturday by Mrs. Cullen, in honor of Lady Isabella Howard.

The Minister from Haiti and Mme. Lezer entertained a small company of young people informally at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. William Phelps Eno will leave Saturday to join the contingent of Washington people at the Virginia Hot Springs. They will return to Washington for the spring season.

Miss Katie Gibson, of I street, entertained at a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. L. Bernard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., last night. The ladies prizes were won by Mrs. Willey, Mrs. Coppas, and Mrs. B. F. Harris, while the gentlemen's prizes were won by H. McCammon, A. Farron, and J. G. Ryan. Benjamin F. Harris also won a prize for a novel and unique guessing game. After the games, a delightful luncheon was served, when the spring colors, yellow and white, were carried out. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Willey, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Hyman, Mr. and Mrs. Farron, Mr. and Mrs. Coppas, Mrs. L. Bernard, Miss M. Curdin, H. Gibson, A. McCammon, and J. G. Ryan.

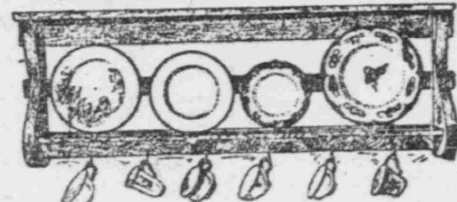

Mrs. Annon Behrend, of Rhode Island avenue, was hostess yesterday at a most beautifully appointed luncheon, in honor of her niece, Mrs. Harry Behrend, of Huntington, W. Va. The color scheme was carried out tastefully in red. The guests were Mrs. Harry Behrend, Mrs. E. Charles Fisher, Mrs. Bernard Behrend, of Seat Pleasant, Md.; Mrs. Levi H. David, Mrs. Isaac Behnd, Mrs. Rudolph E. Behrend, and Miss Nellie Behrend.

Miss Strouse, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Oscar Baum, at the Falcon, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Miss Marguerite Goldman, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney C. Kaufman, of the Bedford, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Dandierine

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

The great efficiency and reliability of Dandierine as a hair grower and scalp regenerator have won the confidence and patronage of millions and millions of people throughout the United States. It has attained a larger sale and is more generally used than any other article—toilet or medicinal—that has ever been sold or handled by the Drug trade in this country. DANDIERINE makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in THREE SIZES, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE

To show how quickly Dandierine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Dandierine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

For sale and guaranteed by HENRY EVANS, 922-924 F Street N. W.
